

Y11 French Weekly Revision Map - Autumn Term 1

You should be spending an additional 1 hour a week on French revision (which is less than 10 minutes per night) throughout Year 11. The earlier that you can start your revision programme, the better! You need to keep your revision active, for example making flash cards, completing exam questions, listening to short bursts of French.

Preparation for Reading Exam

Follow the link below for a link to several reading past papers from a different exam board. Try to complete some of these, making note of any unknown vocabulary in both English and French. For the question paper click on the Q and for the answer paper click on A <https://gcseguide.co.uk/papers/aqa/french/>

A good vocabulary is critical to your success in the reading exam. To develop a strong vocabulary, a “little and often” approach is best. Use Duolingo and Memrise every day for 10 minutes. Also use the extensive list of quizlet links on our Google Classroom.

Preparation for Writing and Translating in French
